Life is theatre - We are actors

From Fedacod federation which is working for equal rights of people of all nationalities we invite you and your organisation to participate in a unique project in Valencia, Spain, in the end of May 2012.

Mission:

The mission of this course is to learn methods of creating awareness about interculturality and social exclusion of immigrant communities.

Method:

We will work through social theatre to achieve changes in our society. We focus particularly on theatre of the oppressed and forum theatre. We will meet with different groups of immigrants, who through their work sensitise the greater community on immigrant issues. These meetings allow us to share experiences and understand the reality of immigrants and their attitude and effort toward integration.

Context:

We promote training in the field of youth work. The participants will learn how to carry out social projects to raise awareness through Youth in Action Programme.

Target group:

We are looking for organisations from the EU who work with youth, want to carry out projects to increase social change, and who want to train their workers in accordance with this objective. We dedicate this course to those people who fight against social exclusion, xenophobia and racism. We invite all who want to work through social theatre and Youth in Action Programme. We welcome as well the participants from countries outside the EU who have a living residence in a member state of the EU.

Please, spread this information to potential Beneficiaries. From each organisation we invite II participants. When we get to know you & your organisations we will ask you to sign agreement of participation. Now EXPRESS your interest by filling out the online application form here: http://www.fedacod.org/
The deadline for the applications is open till 31 of December.
