Challenges of global development education in Slovakia

14/10/2013

Key note speaker

Stephen McCloskey

Director of the Centre for Global Education since 1995, Stephen has managed a series of projects in the formal and non-formal education sectors. He has written education and promotional publications and represents the Centre in development networks in the island of Ireland and England, Scotland and Wales.

Editor of the book From the Local to the Global, which was published in Slovak (Od lokálneho ku globálnemu) in 2011.

Panel discussion

Experts from Slovak universities and NGOs working in the field of global and development education will discuss the current issues:

- Is the global education relevant for Slovakia at all?
- Has it a potential to change attitudes and behaviour?
- Should it be a part of formal education system in our country?

Place: Pazmaneum, Faculty of Health Sciences and Social Work, Trnava University in Trnava

Date and time: 14/10/2013 at 13,00