

NGO Leadership Workshop's speaker:
Michael Hathorn (University of St. Gallen, US)

Michael Hathorn is a professor and practitioner of leadership, innovation, and change. He is a partner of Optimis – a human resources consulting firm that specializes in organizational assessment, development and learning. In addition to his senior management experience in both, industry and the public sector, Michael has in-depth experience in leading enterprise transformation and change management in organizations in North America, Europe, and Asia. He is a contributor to the World Business Council on Sustainable Development and donates his time to a variety of professional organizations. He currently works on the executive program at the University of St. Gallen and Arizona State University. Michael earned a BA degree in Political Science and an MS degree in Marketing from Louisiana State University and a PhD in International Business (with honors) at the University of St. Gallen.

The objective of the NGO Leadership Workshop is to empower selected civil society organizations' representatives to strengthen their internal expertise and managerial capacities in the field of human resources, public relations, and organizational change and assessment. Apply for the NGO Leadership Workshop which will take place on October 22 – 25 and join us in Bratislava, Slovakia! Find out more: <http://mvro.sk/podujatia/ngo-leadership-workshop/>